DESIGN & OFFICE

NWUWEN

The ideal working space, to meet the future development of the business can meet the current needs, comfortable backrest to resolve your day's work tired, spacious flat desktop has enough large space and help you to be successful in business, have ready plans to meet a situation.
As the era of the e office, we integrate advanced technology to create the era of office comfort and product quality, strict production process showed that the user with the ambition, let you maneuver in the sea between among the cutting-edge. The appearance is gorgeous and elegant, the modelling is simple and smooth, the line is smooth, the material is exquisite and exquisite, the work is meticulous and careful, the tone is solemn and elegant, it is a work of art, but also allows you to enjoy more perfect. The distinctive color collocation, design table and cabinet compartment side, enhance the sense of space; the base metal and handle more chic, sophisticated design concept of attention, all this stems from the Western aristocratic office.
Pay attention to excellent quality and practical function of the file cabinet series, fully meet the tastes and needs of senior executives, looks elegant beautiful combination design with a number of storage function, so you go out of the ordinary style of praise.

The arrival of electronic resources age has changed the traditional office environment. As working style changes from the pyramid-type organization to the flat and flexible group work, the office environment is also changing from the closed individual cells to the open screen-partition. Modern office not only advocates the working mode of communication and sharing, but also integrates the coordination and high efficiency thoughts in screen system design concepts. This further evolves to be the flexible and powerful professional screen system.
